Application process flowchart for overseas conscripts to return to Taiwan

(Limited to the freedom areas (Taiwan/Kinmen/Mazu(Lianjiang)) of the Republic of China)

Confirm whether you hold both a Republic of China passport and a passport from your country of residence, and whether you are male and between 19 and 36 years old.

Yes

No

Confirm whether the Republic of China passport has an identity card number.

No

You are not the overseas consripts

Yes

Apply to the Overseas Community Affairs Council for a Certificate of Overseas Chinese Status for Military Service

An Overseas Chinese Identity Certificate Application Form must be completed.
If someone else is applying on your behalf, a Power of Attorney Form (signed by the principal) is also required.
Please prepare your Republic of China and foreign passports, as well as the application fee of NT$200.

Apply at the Overseas Community Affairs Council (OCAC) counter and wait half a day to one working day.
You can then collect your Overseas Chinese Status Certificate for Military Service from the OCAC.

Exit Permit and Certificate of Overseas Chinese Status for Military Service Purposes have both expired.

Apply for an exit permit through the Exit Document Review Platform of the National Immigration Agency, Ministry of the Interior.

To log in, you need to fill in your ID number, date of birth, and Republic of China passport number.
After logging in, select "Add Application," fill in the necessary information, and upload relevant photos.

1. Name of the conscripted overseas Chinese
2. Email address of the conscripted overseas Chinese (must be filled in twice, once for confirmation)
3. Certificate of Overseas Chinese Status for the conscripted overseas Chinese
(in addition to uploading a photo of the certificate, the validity period must be filled in)
4. Passport number of the conscripted overseas Chinese from the Republic of China and his foreign passport
(both must be uploaded with clear photos and the validity period filled in)
5. Record of the conscripted overseas Chinese leaving his/her country of residence within the past 4 months
(The best proof is a flight ticket departing from the country of residence, and the ticket information must clearly confirm that it is held by the conscripted national.)

(If overseas Chinese conscripts have not yet established their military service records, they must go to the household registration office in their place of residence with their guardian to complete the process.)

Please wait approximately one to two business days.
(Contact: Ministry of the Interior, Conscription Department, +886-2-85013928)

Apply for exit approval in person at any of the National Immigration Agency's service centers across the Ministry of the Interior.

An application form must be completed. If someone is applying on your behalf, a power of attorney must also be completed.
(The power of attorney must include a photocopy of both sides of the applicant's ID card (you must photocopy this yourself), and the applicant must also sign it personally.)
Please bring the following documents: Republic of China passport, passport of your country of residence, and Certificate of Overseas Chinese Status for Military Service
(Photocopies of the identity pages from both passports and the Certificate of Overseas Chinese Status for Military Service must be made yourself.)

Once approved, an exit approval stamp will be affixed to the Republic of China passport.

The exit permit has expired,
but the overseas Chinese identity certificate issued by the government is still valid.

After passing the examination, overseas conscripts are free to enter and exit the free areas of the Republic of China within the validity period.